Also a special educator, Charity runs a christian inclusive school in Lagos— one that welcomes every child regardless of their disabilities.

She is experienced and versed in handling children living with disabilities as she has and still handling her two sons living with Ataxia.

She has taught children with different disabilities, ranging from learning and intellectual disabilities, Autism spectrum disorder (ASD), speech and language disorders, Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD), Cerebral palsy (CP), Down syndrome, Ataxia and other related disabilities and has made tangible progress with them.

Her drive for success and excellence in this field has pushed her into taking several trainings and courses to advance her knowledge and to stay relevant, these include:

- Mainstreaming children with cerebral palsy
- Behavior management in children
- Developmentally appropriate practices
- Planned daily activities and routine
- Hands-on learning on Autism
- Diagnostic teaching
- Kingdom schooling
- virtual pathway for instruction and support
- Montessori Early childhood(CMSA)
- Early Years foundation stage(EYFS)
- Child safety and protection course
- Child abuse and neglect prevention
- Cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR)
- Basic life support(BLS) from the American heart association-USA
- IBCCES Certified Autism Specialist (CAS)

She is happily married and blessed with four lovely children.

Her hobbies include reading, writing, teaching and caring for children especially those with disabilities.

She is the author of three books namely:

- My king came as a slave.

- No! Don't go there.
- God in the classroom.

As well as several articles on education and ministry.
