UMAR SYARONI is an Indonesian who holds a Master's degree in Media and Communication (graduated as cum-laude) from Universitas Airlangga. He takes professional communication as his academic concentration as he works as a public relations practitioner and was awarded as Indonesia's Icon of Public Relations in 2020.

Born with a physical disability, Umar became a disability activist who spread awareness about equality and disability inclusion. He believes that sustainability can only be achieved when everyone is equal, so this passion led him to be selected in the 2022 United People Global Sustainability Leadership Program and later certified as a sustainability leader.
