OLANREWAJU YUSUF is a teacher, language and communications specialist and social development enthusiast. He has both Bachelors and Masters degrees in English Language and Literature and is also a TESOL certified ESL professional.

His career as an educator spans over a decade and has seen him teach across the educational spectrum from Primary to Tertiary institutions. He has taught in top flight schools in Nigeria and also honed his craft as an ESL Lecturer in several GCC countries in the Middle East.

He currently heads the IELTS program at PrepClass Nigeria where his signature IELTS Multi-step Program is deployed in centers nationwide. He also creates digital content for the popular IELTS TV Youtube channel with over 9,000 subscriber base.

Beyond the classroom, Lanre is a seasoned trainer, speaker and resource person having facilitated sessions for high-value programs and initiatives in the education sector. He is currently a trainer with the Lagos and Plateau State Governments in the continuous Induction and Onboarding Training for Newly Employed Teachers in Secondary Schools. He is also a prolific resource person in the private sector having worked with the top brands in the industry as facilitator and speaker at several fora.

As a humanist, he channels his experience in education to social development, leading The Give Back Group, a volunteer-driven social development organization that has touched more than 5,000 direct beneficiaries in its less than 3 years of operations. The Group has run several impactful projects in Literacy, STEM and Youth Development across Nigeria.

With over 40,000 books distributed across all the geopolitical zones and more than a dozen Reading Hubs created, the Group fulfills his lifelong goal of improving literacy access for underserved learners.

He is a Lifelong learner currently enrolled in the African Civic Engagement Academy for emerging social development leaders
