

Mrs. Olusola Bankole is a Christian Educator with the passion to contribute significantly towards improving the standard of education in Nigeria. She is the director of The Bankys Private School, Abuja, an Inclusive School which caters for the needs of special students. She is a vision driver on the offering of cutting-edge, top-of-the-range, quality education to the Nigerian child even at a time when standards are falling.

Olusola, the current President of NAPPS, FCT Chapter, a campaigner of the #NoRushNoPush campaign to bring back Primary 6, is focused on raising children, pupils and students who are distinguished both in character and learning. She models as a resource speaker at educational functions empowering 21st-century educators and equipping them with ethical educational values. Olusola will be moderating the conversation on Day 2 of the Global Inclusive Summer Camp 2021.
